Polytechnic University
Orlando Campus

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>JOB OPENING</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Job Title</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Campus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Orlando</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Type of Employee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JOB Number</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Job Summary
The Full-time Electrical Engineering faculty member will teach courses within the electrical engineering department with emphasis in some of the following areas: smart grid power systems, circuit analysis, electronics, alternative generation systems, electromechanical energy conversion, electromagnetic, signal and systems, communication signals & controls, automation, etc. Engage in appropriate professional and scholarly activities, supervise internships, advise students, perform research, and carry out other faculty responsibilities; perform other academic related activities such as research publications, student academic advising, and assist in the revision of curricula and syllabi to fulfill 36 credits per academic year.

Minimum Requirements
- Doctorate degree in electrical engineering
- Ability to teach in a broad range of undergraduate electrical engineering courses
- Minimum three (3) years of teaching experience in a Higher Education Institution
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English (Spanish a must)
- Excellent Interpersonal skills
- Ethical and professional
- Available to teach during afternoons and evening shifts
- Ability to teach online courses and use of technology

Additional Information

| Due date to receive resumes | Until a suitable candidate is found |

Interested person who qualify for this position should submit its resume to Human Resources, addressed to Dr. Luis Javier Delgado, 550 N. Ecombuckhatchee Trail Orlando, FL 32825 or by email at: Ldelgado@pupr.edu. In the case of internal employees, the procedure involves sending a communication accompanied a resume indicating their interest in the position. As established by Executive Order 11246 Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and 1974 VEVRAA requires all sums must be accompanied by forms 41 FR 60-300 42 (a) and CC-305 which is attached to this call.

Luis Javier Delgado
Campus Director

Date
6/29/22

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION (M/F/H/V)
Human Resources Office P.O. Box 192017San Juan, PR 00919-2017