2023 Summer Fellowships

PUPR with the sponsorship of PPOHA Project will provide Summer Fellowships for graduate student research activities.

Requirements to Apply:

1. Admitted to Graduate School as a Master or Ph.D. student
2. Complete the application
3. One recommendation letter
4. Resume
5. A short essay explaining the reasons why the student is interested in participating in the Summer Fellowship
6. Detailed budget (include cost of travel, housing, among others)

Summer Fellowships Details:

The Summer Fellowship award is directed to cover the tuition and academic fees (if applicable), student travel, stipend, among others.

The student is expected to conduct the project under the oversight of a mentor (the student is responsible for identifying an appropriate mentor from his/her school). Multiple students can work together. However, each student must submit an individual application and state his/her objective of working together with a colleague.

We are particularly interested in projects that:

- 1) are focused on Cybersecurity and Computer Science topics, and
- 2) encourage academic and interprofessional teamwork.

Although, Cybersecurity and Computer Science topics are encouraged, other academic areas will also be considered and evaluated.
