Reservation of Rights:

The University makes every effort to anticipate local and national developments and adapt as appropriate to continue delivering educational services for students. There may be situations where, for the health, safety and/or wellbeing of our community and as determined by the University in its discretion, we will be required to make changes to methods and timing of instruction, delivery of and access to services and course content, etc., including possibly implementing a full or partial campus closure, temporary suspension of classes and services, and/or switching from on-campus learning and delivery of services to distance or remote learning and delivery of services. By signing up for classes or otherwise enrolling in the University does not in any way guarantee in-person, on-campus education or services or any other particular format of education or services. Finally, you understand and agree that you are responsible for all tuition and fees, regardless of the format in which education and services are provided, and that no refunds or credits for tuition, fees, or other charges will be provided in the event of such changes, including any changes from on-campus education and/or services to remote services and/or remote learning. Any decision by the University to provide a refund or credit, in whole or in part, of any fee or other charge in the event of a campus closure, suspension, or other change to the delivery format of education and/or services shall be in the University’s discretion and shall not create an expectancy that any individual is entitled to such refund or credit or that it will be provided in any other instance.
